3. EBCA legal business identity update:

Bylaws are written and waiting for IRS language. Ian will send them for review. Betsy offered to review from a legal perspective. *Will need to vote at next meeting to accept the bylaws as written.

4. Christmas in Enosburg

Planning is moving ahead. Bridges of hope are on schedule being constructed by David and Sally Tryhorne. Discussion about cost. The EBA has money ear marked in the Money market for lights in the park. It was decided that money would be used for the construction of the bridges. Shawna is on the agenda with the trustees to ask for the cost of the lights to be paid by the village line item. Discussion regarding the lighting of main street. Shawna is seeking permission from Paul Godin and Ron Larose to power off their buildings. Will ask trustees permission to meet with Dave Westcom to discuss the power poles on the other side of the building.

5. New Business:

Suzi advised that the food shelf does not need us to do the donation drive this year, they have been blessed with donations and are all set for the holiday. They do need help on Tuesday nights for the soup night serving.
